The following letter-form was brought about as a means of teaching my children the Word of God through the mail. And of course, quite naturally so, that's the reason I begin these letters with "Dear Children" and end them with "Love Dad". So for the rest of you who participate in these weekly messages, please keep their original intended purpose in mind.

1 August, 2010

Dear Children,

On the 28th of July 2010, Melody Green and her Last Days Ministry (LDM) joined hands with Youth With A Mission (YWAM) and produced the "Keith Green 28/28/28 Live To The Nations" Web broadcast. In fact, here's a quote from the LDM email that announced this monumental event:

"Melody is excited to be a part of this historical event, as well as hear from those who knew and loved Keith so well: John Dawson (International President, YWAM), Loren & Darlene Cunningham (founders of YWAM & President UofN Kona), plus a very special never-released-before video of Keith in concert sharing a message for TODAY. This event is going to be powerful!"

Now with that in mind, would anybody care to guess (?) why the title of this message is "Melody Green Blasphemes The Name Of Keith Green!"

Well, for those of you not acquainted with Keith and Melody Green and their Last Days Ministry, here's a brief introduction that should bring you up to speed:

Keith Green had a Jewish background, but he grew up reading the Christian New Testament. He called it "an odd combination" that left him open minded but deeply unsatisfied. His spiritual journey led him to drugs, South Asian mysticism, and "free love." After experiencing what Keith described as a "bad trip," he abandoned drug use and became bitter towards philosophy and theology in general. Keith would later state, however, that in the midst of his skepticism he felt that God "broke through [his] callused heart," and he became a born-again Christian.

After receiving Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour, Keith used his musical talents to answer the high calling of Christian service. He turned his music into a ministry. During his concerts he would often angrily exhort his listeners to repent, and commit themselves wholly to following Christ. The initial tone of Keith's ministry was largely influenced by Leonard Ravenhill, who pointed Keith to Charles Finney, a nineteenth century revivalist preacher who preached the law of God to provoke conviction in his hearers.

Although Keith was killed in a tragic plane crash in 1982, his legacy lives on. He was a man radically transformed and wondrously used by the Spirit of God to touch countless thousands of lives, if not millions. Through his music ministry, his teaching, and the Last Days Ministries – a work both he and his wife Melody began in 1979 – Keith boldly challenged the multitudes to completely sell out to the cause of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Now that's a testimony! Keith Green, an unbelieving Jew, radically saved by the Blood of Jesus... and his Last Days Ministry was just as radical as well. In fact it was God who sent Leonard Ravenhill – a man with much spiritual wisdom – to mentor Keith in the ways of the Lord. And the following quote should help you understand what "Ravenhill the prophet/evangelist/revivalist" was really all about:

"America would shake from coast to coast in twenty four hours if some preacher anointed with the Holy Ghost, gave the Roman Catholic Church a broadside! ...These priests who dope men's souls, these idolatrous "masses", these Calvary eclipsing prayers to Mary, these miserable millions cheated in life and death by the greatest forgery Lucifer ever made." [Why Revival Tarries by Leonard Ravenhill, Copyright 1959, Bethany House Publishers, Pages 39-40]

So, that was what Keith Green's mentor had to say about the Roman Catholic Church and it's so-called 'Christian' religion: "the greatest forgery Lucifer ever made."

That was the spirit of the man who God sent to help Keith Green quickly develop into that "Holy Ghost anointed prophet/evangelist/revivalist who would give the Roman Catholic Church a broadside." And, of course, that's exactly what Keith did... and then they killed him... and this is the reason why:

Only those who cannot handle the uncompromising pursuit of truth will have a problem with "The Catholic Chronicles". There is probably no better, readable and concise introductory work in defining the differences between the Protestant and Catholic beliefs than this series by Keith Green. They are factual, balanced and worthy of consideration as the Protestant/Catholic difference perseveres. However, as directed by Melody Green, the Last Days Ministries publication of "The Catholic Chronicles" was discontinued in the early 1980's following Keith's death.

You see the "broadside" that Keith Green delivered to the Roman Catholic Church was "The Catholic Chronicles"... and it knocked them on their keister! In fact the titles to the four parts of this series are listed below, and you can read the contents of each online at <http://www.fmh-child.org/KeithGreen.html>:

- Part 1 - The Holy Eucharist: Eating the Flesh of Deity
- Part 2 - The Sacrafice of the Mass - What Does it Mean?
- Part 3 - Salvation According to Rome
- Part 4 - What did "Vatican II" Really Change?

But to give you just a taste of Keith’s “broadside” to the Church of Rome, here’s an excerpt from part 3 – “Salvation According to Rome”:

The Roman Church is an Empire with its own ruler, its own laws, and its own subjects. It calls the members of other faiths "separated brethren" (24) and has as its goal the eventual bringing together of everyone under its flag. I know that many will not be convinced or moved by this article to make such a conclusion. They are impressed by what they've heard about recent stirrings among the Catholics in the "Charismatic renewal". Many evangelicals (especially charismatics) have been thrilled by the reports of Catholics speaking in tongues, dancing in the Spirit, having nights of joy and praise, even attending "charismatic Masses". Mouths that used to speak out boldly against the Church of Rome have been quieted by the times. It no longer is in vogue to speak out against such error (25). Now Protestants unwittingly believe that "our differences are not so great". I've never completely understood why God led me to write these articles. But it becomes more clear with each day of study and each page of research that the truth of Scripture must be defended for the glory of our Lord Jesus and for those who desperately need to be set free.

Now, without a doubt, “The Catholic Chronicles” was a God-ordained and God-inspired work of the Holy Spirit through an obedient servant of the Lord whose name was Keith Green. He wrote it, he published it, and he meant for it to be available for the whole wide world to read! So, why in the world would his widow (Melody Green) try to make “The Catholic Chronicles” do a disappearing act after Keith’s death?

Well, this is as good a place as any to introduce the writings of another great man of God from the past, and his name is C.H. Spurgeon:

*****

The Curse Of Restoring Error

“...Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho...”
(Joshua 6:26 KJV)

Since he was cursed who rebuilt Jericho, much more the man who labours to restore Popery among us. In our fathers' days the gigantic walls of Popery fell by the power of their faith, the perseverance of their efforts, and the blast of their gospel trumpets; and now there are some who would rebuild that accursed system upon its old foundation. O Lord, be pleased to thwart their unrighteous endeavours, and pull down every stone which they build. It should be a serious business with us to be thoroughly purged of every error which may have a tendency to foster the spirit of Popery, and when we have made a clean sweep at home we should seek in every way to oppose its all too rapid spread abroad in the church and in the world. This last can be done in secret by fervent prayer, and in public by decided testimony. We must warn with judicious boldness those who are inclined towards the errors of Rome; we must instruct the young in gospel truth, and tell them of the black doings of Popery in the olden times. We must aid in spreading the light more thoroughly through the land, for priests, like owls, hate daylight. Are we doing all we can for Jesus and the gospel? If not, our negligence plays into the hands of the priestcraft. What are we doing to spread the Bible, which is the Pope's bane and poison? Are we casting abroad good, sound gospel writings? Luther once said, "The devil hates goose quills" and, doubtless, he has good reason, for ready writers, by the Holy Spirit's blessing, have done his kingdom much damage. If the thousands who will read this short word this night will do all they can to hinder the rebuilding of this accursed Jericho, the Lord's glory shall speed among the sons of men. Reader, what can you do? What will you do?

-- C.H. Spurgeon

*****

So, just what is "Popery"? Webster defined it like this:

PO'PERY, n. The religion of the church of Rome, comprehending doctrines and practices. (Webster's 1828 Dictionary)

Spurgeon said, "we must instruct the young in gospel truth, and tell them of the black doings of Popery in the olden times", and that's exactly what Keith Green did through "The Catholic Chronicles"! So why do you think Melody Green would be so foolish as to aid in the rebuilding of the Roman Catholic Religious System (Popery) and thereby receive God's curse upon her life?

Cursed be the woman before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth Vatican City!

Now that's a hard word! But is the Roman Catholic Religious System really that bad, you might ask? Is that wicked Jericho of Biblical times a fair comparison to the Vatican City of today?

Well, did you know that Vatican City is actually the headquarters of the Roman Catholic Empire? And did you know that the word "Vatican" actually means the "center of divination"? In fact let me give you a little history lesson on the spirits behind the divination that takes place at the Roman Catholic Headquarters of Vatican City:

A common practice in Egypt, Greece, and other nations of the Middle East and the Mediterranean area, where the religion of Babylon had spread, was to erect an obelisk in front of the temple. This symbolism for the phallus associated the religion with the fertility cult of Nimrod. The temples of Diana, the Ephesian counterpart of Nimrod's wife, the queen of heaven, was supported by the temple prostitutes. According to Ezekiel 8:1-6, this abominable symbol was erected in front of the temple at the north gate. Ezekiel referred to it as the "image of jealousy." We can be certain that it was the Babylonian symbol of Nimrod because we read in verse fourteen that the prophet saw a woman at the temple weeping for Tammuz, the son of Nimrod.

Emperor Caligula was one of the most cruel and degenerate of the Caesars of Rome. According to the book Babylon Mystery Religion, Caligula transported an obelisk from Heliopolis in Egypt to the section of Rome which was called his circus. This hill is the place where the Vatican was later built. The obelisk remained in the Vatican until 1586 when Pope Sixtus V had it moved in front of the church at St. Peter where it is today. The pope had decreed the death penalty if it should be broken or damaged. The mover was a man named Domenico Fontana. Forty-five winches, one hundred sixty horses, and a crew of eight hundred men were required to move the obelisk to its new location. When the task was completed, the pope blessed it and the workmen who had moved it under such an extreme penalty for failure. An inscription in the pagan temple of Heliopolis, from where the obelisk came, reads: "I, Dionysus, dedicated these phalli to Hera, my stepmother." The account of the moving of the obelisk can be found in the Hasting's Encyclopedia Of Religion and Ethics in a section on "phallicism."

Now the preceding information was taken from Noah Hutchings' Babylon In the Church, and it points to an amazing truth about the phallus symbol (obelisk) that's erected in front of the Papal Basilica of Saint Peter in honor of Nimrod – a type of the soon coming Antichrist! I mean, after all, the spirit of Nimrod is the spirit of the Roman Catholic Religious System:

“And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.” (Revelation 17:5-6 KJV)

So with that in mind, let's get back to Melody Green and the question of “how in the world did she get duped into denying the gospel-truth written by her late husband in The Catholic Chronicles?”

“For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.” (Acts 20:29-30 KJV)

of the Roman Catholic Church. So what's wrong with this picture? Do you think that just maybe Melody doesn't understand the true meaning of the word "compromise"? And with that in mind, let's get back to the question of "how in the world did Melody get duped into denying the gospel-truth of The Catholic Chronicles?"

Well, in order to answer that question we need to go back to 1981 when Keith Green became acquainted with the director of Youth With A Mission (YWAM) in Los Angeles, California. And the following excerpt from Melody's 1989 biography "No Compromise" will help us to see the horrifying details of the Devil's deadly "ecumenical" (one world religion) deception hard at work:

One day a man named John Dawson accidentally strayed into Keith's line of fire. John had invited Keith to minister at a large concert in the Anaheim stadium to raise money for "boat people" – refugees fleeing Thailand and Cambodia. A coalition of various groups was working together to pull it off: Episcopalians, charismatics, Catholics, evangelicals, and Pentecostals. John, who was directing the YWAM work in Los Angeles, had seen Keith in concert and believed he would be an important person for the program.

Unknown to John, Keith was very concerned at that time about Christians reducing biblical truth to the lowest common denominator for the sake of unity. So when Keith got the invitation, he shot back a strong but earnest letter turning down John's invitation. Though Keith really wanted to help the boat people, he felt ecumenical gatherings were a compromise, and John was in error for taking part.

Keith was impressed when he received back a thoughtful letter from John, who explained that the Lord had been breaking many hearts over the plight of the refugees. John said, "Brother, the cooperative effort to raise money for six different relief agencies to help the boat people is an expression of concern and compassion – not compromise.

John assured Keith the gathering was not some kind of conspiracy against the truth. He even gave Keith a word of correction. "Keith, in saying some of the things you did, you were entering into the sin of judgment."

Now, what you have just read is the beginning of chapter 21 – "Open Your Eyes". Can you believe that title? I mean, can you see the hypnotic look in Melody's eyes as she wrote it? No Compromise??? I don't think so! In fact, please allow me to help you see the "compromising picture" through a very familiar Bible story:

Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? ...And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. (Genesis 3:1, 6-7 KJV)

So guess who the "serpent" was in Keith and Melody's life. You guessed it – John Dawson, the director of Youth With A Mission (YWAM) in Los Angeles, California. And what was the lie that he presented to that lovely couple at the Last Days Ministry? Would you believe (?) "God said it's all right to come together with the ungodly religions of the world if it's for a good humanitarian cause."

Well if that's not enough already, the number of that "Open Your Eyes" chapter was "21"... which in Biblical terms is associated with the "exceeding sinfulness of sin".

That was no coincidence! Unbeknown to Melody, God supernaturally spoke through her of their sin with "YWAM and the ecumenical gatherings". He spoke it and she subliminally included it in her book. And of course the Biblical account of what happened holds true: "she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened."

But getting back to the snake (John Dawson), in order to make sure Keith renounced his beliefs that "ecumenical gatherings were a compromise", he hit him up with a guilt trip by twisting/distorting the Word of God: "Keith, in saying some of the things you did, you were entering into the sin of judgment."

What a lie of the Devil, John Dawson! In fact the following is God's truth concerning Matthew 7:1-3 and Keith's righteous judgment against "the Devil in John Dawson":

Should Christians Judge Each Other? You Betcha!

One of the biggest problems in the Church is that some Christians are way too trusting. Jesus warned, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." (Mat 7:15). Far too many of the sheep do not heed our Lord's words. Even when believers are cautioned about certain false teachers, they blow off the warning and blindly follow these wolves.

You've probably heard this many times: "The Bible says not to judge." What the Bible actually says is that we're not to judge a person's heart or motives. "But he that is spiritual judgeth all things," says Paul, "yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ" (1Cor 2:15-16). According to Paul true followers of Jesus are of the same mind. When you have the mind of Christ you have spiritual discernment. Christians (who are walking with Christ) have the authority to judge people's words and actions. How do you know if someone is a false teacher? Go to the scriptures! In 2 Timothy 3:16-17 Paul says: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

No doubt some Christians will continue to complain that "judging" is unbiblical and play the Mat. 7:1-3 card: "Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?" What they fail to understand is that the Spirit of God abides in regenerate Christians. Hence we have the mind of Christ! As for the unbeliever, Scripture clearly teaches that the natural man [unregenerate] "receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (1 Cor 2:14). So the unregenerate person does not - cannot - understand the things of God. Amazingly, a growing number of self-professed Christians think the things of God are foolishness.

The good news is that believers who read and study the Bible are not easily taken in by apostates. But even mature believers can have the wool pulled over their eyes if they stop being Bereans. It was for this very reason that John penned this warning: "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world" (1 John 4:1).
-- The Berean Call

That is God's Truth! Thank you Jesus! And the truth of the matter with Keith and Melody is that John Dawson (a false prophet) pulled the wool over their eyes. Because it was shortly thereafter, in early part of 1982, that Keith accepted John Dawson's invitation to visit a number of YWAM training bases in Europe. And it was during this trip that the hearts of Keith and Melody were touched by the volunteers who had dedicated their lives to serve the Lord through YWAM... and they were likewise overwhelmed by the sheer number of lost people needing help but with so few workers to help them.

In other words, Keith and Melody took the bait – John Dawson had successfully led them into his YWAM “ecumenical humanitarian trap”. However, it was only a short time later – the 28th of July 1982 – that Keith was killed in a plane crash. They meant it for evil, but God allowed it for good; Keith was taken out of John Dawson's compromising situation.

Now with that in mind please allow me to give you just a few pertinent facts about “YWAM” from the Biblical Discernment Ministries' article entitled “Youth With A Mission - Ecumenical (Catholic/Charismatic) Evangelism”:

Youth With A Mission (YWAM) is one of the largest mission groups in the world -- an international parachurch organization with roughly 11,000 permanent and 51,000 short-term and student youth "missionaries" [see note] serving in over 800 operating locations in over 135 countries. YWAM operates with a volunteer staff of about 12,000. It was founded in 1960 by a young Assemblies of God college student, Loren Cunningham, to "train young Christians for short-term volunteer service in evangelism and faith development." YWAM operates as a family of ministries rather than as a very structured, centralized agency, maintaining no international headquarters -- each YWAM location does its own mobilizing and training, and sets its own priorities in carrying out ministry. As part of this "family," YWAM operates two "mercy ships," the Good Samaritan and the Anastasis, both of which provide medical and emergency supplies and conduct discipleship training and evangelism at ports around the world...
YWAM also has a strong charismatic influence.
Since the late-1970s, YWAM has worked closely with Catholic charismatics. In 1978, a YWAM worker in Austria was praying about whether it was possible for a born-again, Bible-believing Christian to be a committed Roman Catholic and decided it was. Beginning in 1978, YWAM workers in Austria began to cooperate with Catholics there. By 1984, YWAM formally accepted a proposal to work with the Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches in various projects. YWAM has since played an important role in helping "nascent [emerging] charismatic communities among Roman Catholic youth," resulting in the spreading of new Catholic centers for evangelism training.

[<http://www.rapidnet.com/~jbeard/bdm/Psychology/ywam.htm>]

As can be seen from the preceding information, it was right about the time Keith and Melody were being enticed to join the YWAM movement that YWAM was just beginning to show it's abominable relationship with the Roman Catholic Whore. At that time YWAM's "fornication with the Whore" was being done mostly in secret, due to such outspoken God-fearing men as Leonard Ravenhill and Keith Green. And even though John Dawson was able to pull Keith into the outer fringes of YWAM through his "humanitarian outreach scheme", the question remains: Would John Dawson have been able to turn Keith from his God-given beliefs as published in "The Catholic Chronicles"?

So they killed Keith Green, declared the cause of the crash to be an "overloaded aircraft", and then proceeded to transform his surviving LDM partner into the "ecumenical Melody Green" that would bring Christians into their perverted religious programs. And of course the "Keith Green 28/28/28 Live To The Nations" Web broadcast was just one of the most recent examples of Satan's grand delusion to corrupt the Christians of today.

Keith Green is with the Lord in Heaven, so let's now turn our attention to Melody... and likewise focus on her present-day spiritually lost condition.

You see Melody now resides in Kansas City, Missouri, where she's a part of the International House of Prayer Kansas City (IHOPKC) and their Forerunner Christian Fellowship (FCF). And it's through her very close friend Jill Austin that we're going to uncover the true spirit within IHOP and FCF. So, here's the email we received from Melody on 1/8/09 concerning Jill:

Urgent Prayer Needed for Jill Austin

January 8, 2009 7PM CST

Jill Austin, founder Master Potter Ministries

Jill Austin is a dear friend of mine and of LDM. She is also on our Board of Directors.

I just got off the phone with Linda Valen, Jill's longtime friend and co-worker. Linda said to me, "Jill is in grave condition and fighting for her life."

Jill had gotten sick earlier this week and after vomiting for 36 hours, doctors found that her intestines had become twisted, which cut off her blood supply in some areas. They operated last night, not knowing if she would survive.

This morning an infection set in and a second operation was needed. Gangrene was found and her intestine's were removed along, with parts of other organs. This was a very radical surgery that has just been completed--and medical teams are fighting right now to keep Jill alive.

Jill is currently in a hospital near Kansas City, in intensive care, on a ventilator, and is in extremely grave condition. Doctors say if she survives she will need an intestine transplant.

Jill travels the world speaking and teaching and ministering the Gospel with signs and wonders. She is also an author and has written for LDM. Click here to read her powerful LDM article if you want to get sense of her heart.

Please pray fervently for Jill. Pray for the doctors to have wisdom and for Jill's spirit to rise-up and fight! Help her with your prayers to contend for her life.

Jill has given her heart to others for decades. Now she needs all OUR HEARTS with urgency of prayer.

I will post more info as I receive it.

Thank you for your prayers.

Well, it was only two days later, at 9:48 pm on the 10th of January 2009, that Jill Austin died. And this is what Melody had to say in her email on the 11th:

I've been asked by the International House of Prayer Kansas City (IHOPKC) to take a few minutes at their Forerunner Christian Fellowship (FCF) church services tomorrow -- to share about my friend and her impact on my life.

Jill was such a dear longtime friend and I am deeply grieved, but I want to honor her and represent what her heart was all about -- and there is so much that could be said. I need God's help to do this so please pray for me to have His anointing.

FCF streams free live webcasts of their church services so you can watch if you want. Jill lived here for many years and was closely knit into the IHOP family... everyone is brokenhearted. I know you will be encouraged by the worship and Mike Bickles always powerful message.

So with that in mind, let me introduce Andrew Strom – a man sent by God to Kansas City to pick up the pieces of Mike Bickle's failed Kansas City revival/restoration of the 1980's. In fact keep it in mind that the spirit of Mike Bickle, IHOP, FCF, Melody Green, and Jill Austin is one and the same. And here's just a few of Andrew Strom's comments concerning that same spirit that was in Jill Austin:

...I have refrained from saying such things in the past, but I can no longer do so, because untold people are being spiritually damaged by what is going on. Please understand my heart in this.

For the same reason I also need to warn you about another 'prophetess' who is often featured on the Elijah List. Her name is Jill Austin and I have personally witnessed her ministry in action. I would describe it as one of the most disturbing (by far) meetings that I have ever been in. There was definitely a strange "power" operating, but it certainly did not seem like God to me. She is also an expert at 'hyping' an audience. Please be very careful in such environments, my friends. -You can end up taking part in things that you would never normally do, just because you are part of a large crowd.

...A minister from England described one of her [Jill Austin] meetings as follows: “The weirdest three hours I have ever had to endure... she spoke of the times that she meets with the Angel Gabriel and other spiritual beings, next we moved on to portals between this world and the next and then finally to how she was going to open up a portal to Heaven in the room that we were all in. Now things started to happen, really crazy things and strange noises... As [she] moved around the room ministering to individual people they were crashing to the ground, bouncing up and down, running around as if on fire and making all sorts of sounds... My Vineyard friend was the first to crash to the floor. Since that day his church has taken on a different guise, it is not the same church any more.”
[<http://homepages.ihug.co.nz/~revival/leaving2.html>]

Talk about “strange spirits”! Did it make the hair stand up on the back of your neck? Well if that didn’t, this will. Because you see Andrew Strom has written a book entitled “KUNDALINI WARNING – Are False Spirits Invading the Church?”... and this is what it’s all about:

Written by a genuine "Insider," this is the true story of one of the most frightening "invasions" in the history of the church - and the fight to keep it out. Andrew Strom has been part of the Charismatic movement for over 25 years - and was deeply involved in the modern "Prophetic" movement for 11 of those years... In this book, Strom traces this mass invasion of false spirits back to 1994, and shows how it culminated in the bizarre events surrounding Todd Bentley and the Lakeland revival in 2008. What are 'Kundalini' spirits? What are the signs of their presence? And how can such an invasion be turned around? All this and more is discussed in this provocative book. "A 'MUST READ'" - The Voice Magazine. "The church of Jesus Christ does not realize that it has been infiltrated by demonic forces. Discernment has been lost! A book that is beyond needful." - Greg Gordon, SermonIndex.

That’s the book that exposes the truth about the false spirits working in the “ecumenical church” of today. However, just in case you’d like to see it with your own eyes then check out the Internet and Andrew Strom’s YouTube video by the same name:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eBpw2oQrvMM>.

But, what is “Kundalini”? Would you believe an Eastern religious concept (Buddhist and Hindu) of a “spiritual enlightenment” which is brought about through a demonic form of “meditation” – an altered state of mind. In fact when this Kundalini “spirit” awakens within the person it causes certain strange manifestations to take place. And getting back to the fact that this “spirit” has invaded the “ecumenical churches” of today, the following quote from a website supporting a world wide awakening of Kundalini makes perfect sense: “So if you call it Kundalini the people in Christian circles will run from it. If you call it the Baptism of the Holy Spirit the same people will run to it.”

So with that “false spirit” in mind, let’s get back to Melody Green’s best friend Jill Austin and her sudden mysterious death, and see what the Holy Bible might have to say about it:

“He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly (G2836) shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)” (John 7:38-39 KJV)

Belly (G2836) [koy-lee'-ah] - From κοῖλος keilos (“hollow”); a cavity, that is, (specifically) the abdomen; by implication the matrix; figuratively the heart: - belly, womb. (Strongs Hebrew And Greek Dictionary)

Belly - The seat of the carnal affections (Tit 1:12; Phi 3:19; Rom 16:18). The word is used symbolically for the heart (Pro 18:8; Pro 20:27; Pro 22:18, marg.). The “belly of hell” signifies the grave or underworld (Jon 2:2). (Easton’s Bible Dictionary)

Now without going into an in-depth discussion on the “human body and sin”, let me just say that the belly is where the “spirits” reside... whether it be the Holy Spirit or demonic spirits (AKA Kundalini). And it shouldn’t be too hard to understand that what took place in Jill Austin’s “belly” was not what anyone in their right mind would consider to be the “living water” of the Holy Spirit: “...her intestines had become twisted, which cut off her blood supply in some areas... Gangrene was found and her intestine's were removed along, with parts of other organs.”

Demonic to say the least! And with that in mind, please allow me to give you the Scripture that describes the Judas Iscariot painting on the right that likewise depicts what took place in Jill Austin and caused her death:

“And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,) Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take.” (Acts 1:15-20 KJV)

Shockingly graphic, but true! In fact it was shortly after receiving Melody Green’s email announcing Jill Austin’s death that the Lord told me she’s not with Him in Heaven. Jill Austin’s ministry was all about “signs and wonders”, but the spirit behind them was definitely not of God. Demonic spirits used Jill Austin in a mighty powerful way, and now Jill Austin is receiving her just rewards in Hell.

So with that in mind, it shouldn't be any too difficult to answer the question of "how in the world did Melody get duped into denying the gospel-truth of The Catholic Chronicles?" I mean, after all, God commands us to do the following... but Melody certainly hasn't obeyed:

"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty." (2 Corinthians 6:17-18 KJV)

Well, seeing how Melody Green continues to "run with the Devil" and his ecumenical church, that is the very same reason her LDM office sent me the following threatening email concerning "The Catholic Chronicles" posted on the FMHCCI Web site:

Dear friends,

Greetings in the precious name of Jesus!

It has come to our attention that you are publishing the tracts entitled "The Catholic Chronicles" on your Web Page which were originally articles in The Last Days Magazine. We understand your desire to put your point of view on the Internet for others to read, but we hope you are aware of the fact that you do need copyright permission to use any of our materials on your own Web Site. Perhaps you think that these materials are Public Domain, but this is not correct; we still own the copyrights and when others use it without permission, this jeopardizes our copyright control.

Since we maintain our own Web Page ("www.lastdaysministries.org") which contains all of the tracts currently available, we usually give permission to put a link from your Web Page to ours, highlighting any particular tract (after permission is requested). However, several of our tracts -- including the "Catholic Chronicles" -- have been discontinued. We feel that we would not have discontinued these tracts if it was not the Lord's leading and, in keeping with the spirit of these decisions, WE DO NOT GIVE PERMISSION FOR ANYONE ELSE TO REPRINT THEM OR MAKE THEM AVAILABLE FROM ANY OTHER SOURCE.

As Christians, we know that you would not consciously use materials without permission as this would be against the whole spirit of your Christian outreach. We appreciate your desire to share with those who do not know the Lord Jesus but, as Keith said in his introduction to the Catholic Chronicles series, "we know of many loving, committed and sincere believers among their ranks..." Even when we were distributing the Catholic Chronicles, we sent a notice along with every order making it clear that we did not want these tracts to be used for general distribution; they were ALWAYS meant to be used on a personal one-to-one basis. No Christian group is excluded from inconsistency between their written creed and what is practiced or preached from the pulpit. If we consistently emphasize the differences in theology between groups, we will lose the ability to share in the “more excellent way” described in 1 Cor. 13.

We hope that you will consider this as a direct request to cease publishing any of our tracts, and more particularly the “Catholic Chronicles” and any others which have been withdrawn. Please look up our Web Site and if there are tracts that you wish to use as part of your own outreach, you can link our Web Site to yours (after receiving permission, of course). We hope you accept this letter in the love with which it is meant.

Yours in Christ,

Betty Daffin

So, let there be no confusion about it; the preceding LDM letter was from “the Devil”. And seeing how the Lord God Almighty was the One who told me to post “The Catholic Chronicles” on the FMHCCI Web site for the whole wide world to read, it only makes sense that “The Catholic Chronicles” remain posted. I mean, after all, that’s what Keith Green wanted... and more importantly, that’s what the Lord told me to do!

“Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.” (Acts 5:29 KJV)

Amen and amen!

So, we’ve determined that Melody Green is in a spiritual mess – in bed with the Roman Catholic Whore - but will she ever recover? I mean, after all, she has blasphemed her late husband’s name by associating it with the “ecumenical YWAM” and the “Keith Green 28/28/28 Live To The Nations” Web broadcast... and that’s only the most recent example of it. And just to think, Melody actually wrote the book entitled “No Compromise”!

But anyway, just to shore up the truth that’s already been spoken concerning Melody’s need to bring back “The Catholic Chronicles” into publication, the following is a short writing by Andrew Strom on “the prophetic” which gives Keith Green the credit due for the work he’s accomplished in the Lord for the glory of God:

Just because I have cut myself off from today’s Prophetic movement does not mean that I believe there is no place for prophets in the church. In fact, I believe we need true prophets now more than ever. But you will notice that there has been a subtle shift in the use of the term “prophet” over the last 25 years, and I believe we need to get back to the original meaning. It was not long ago that when you spoke of a ‘prophet’ you were usually referring to someone like Keith Green, Leonard Ravenhill or David Wilkerson – someone who was crying out to the lukewarm church, “REPENT.” And if you look down the annals of history, you will find that there has never been a true Prophetic movement that did not have this as it’s core message. Every true Prophetic movement, right from the Old Testament down through every Revival and Awakening that I have ever studied, has been a movement of REPENTANCE. And yet we find today a movement that calls itself “Prophetic” – but with spiritual ‘revelations’ and words of knowledge at its core. -No piercing word. This is the precise reason why it has gone off the rails. -It has abandoned it’s age-old message. It’s ‘word’ has been corrupted...

As A.W. Tozer wrote of all true prophets down the ages: “God has always had His specialists whose chief concern has been the moral breakdown, the decline in the spiritual health of the nation or the church. Such men were Elijah, Jeremiah, Malachi and others of their kind who appeared at critical moments in history to reprove, rebuke and exhort in the name of God and righteousness... Such a man was likely to be drastic, radical, possibly at times violent, and the curious crowd that gathered to watch him work soon branded him as extreme, fanatical, negative. And in a sense they were right. He was single-minded, severe, fearless, and these were the qualities the circumstances demanded. He shocked some, frightened others and alienated not a few, but he knew who had called him and what he was sent to do. His ministry was geared to the emergency, and that fact marked him out as different, a man apart.”

Thank you Andrew Strom for that word! We pray that Melody Green will wake up to it’s truth and change her un-repent heart concerning “The Catholic Chronicles”.

And now it’s time for one final word of correction, but this time to Andrew Strom. He has spoken many truths that we’ve used in this sermonet of today, however there are some things in his life that he needs to repent of too. And the following letter from Doug Perry of Fellowship Of The Martyrs (<http://www.fellowshipofthemartyrs.com>) will help bring Andrew Strom’s un-repent sin to light:

Hi Bruce,

In response to your question, I truly love Andrew and have prayed and wept for him. He was here to pray for me when I needed it and I have felt a debt to him for that. He was the one that introduced me to a large degree to the prophetic history of Kansas City and his site helped educate me about past revivals and the urgent need for another.

That said, Andrew, by his own testimony, was sent by God to Kansas City to bring revival. He was critical of Mike Bickle and, on some level, knew that he was to pick up the pieces of the failed revival/restoration in the 1980's. But he was too prideful, too unwilling to hear rebukes and concerns, quick to dismiss and marginalize anyone that was also planted here, and generally doesn't really hear the voice of God directing all his steps. At the 2nd "John the Baptist Conference" in Kansas City (Spring 2006), I privately told him that he was supposed to be helping restore Kansas City, not leading conferences everywhere else - and that if he didn't get about it and start playing nice with others, that God was going to rotate him out and replace him. He ejected me from his conference on the spot and continues to refuse to see how God might be working anywhere but in HIS ministry. And yet the Lord confirmed my words to him, as within weeks he left Kansas City, bemoaning the dead ground and lack of support he got, and moved to Wisconsin- then Arizona, then Southern California and then back to New Zealand, as far from Kansas City as you can get. By his words and his inaction, he has done a lot of harm to me personally and to the work of God in Kansas City. He could be a real help, but he won't see that God is moving through others because he missed the boat.

He is not even sure of his calling or office. He knows that he has the potential to be an apostle, but hasn't walked in it. There are no signs and wonders confirming his words - and he knows it. Now, understand that I am NOT a gold-dust, feather, laughing kind of a guy - but I EXPECT that the preaching of the anointed Word of God will be confirmed in power, as it was with Paul. And that is happening here in Liberty all the time, but it doesn't follow Andrew, not really. I've seen him over and over try to attach himself to someone who DID have those things following them, to give himself more credibility. (And it always goes badly.)

He is a revival historian. That's not what he is supposed to be, but that's what he is at the moment. He regurgitates the anointed words of others and even his own writings are mostly shaped by news articles and economic data and the prophecy of others. I find precious little personal revelation that is real RHEMA.

As for the Red Dragon, he is showing all the signs of someone that is supernaturally unable to listen and see outside of his own silk covering. He is doing his dance and chasing his own "pearl" and isn't playing nice with others. I just leave him to God. It's been really sad to watch. But there is no way to talk somebody out from under a Red Dragon delusion. Until the Lord opens their eyes and pours out repentance, there's no hope.

I don't expect people to believe me. They need to take it to the Lord and see what HE says. I expect that the Lord will back me up sooner or later. God is moving in Kansas City and my words to Andrew were proven true. He's as far from Kansas City as you can get (physically and spiritually). And if this is all that he said that it was prophesied to be - the site of the last great revival - then why isn't he HERE?

Sincerely, I love him and have begged for him to be restored and get his head on right. He keeps giving quotes and exhortations that he himself isn't living by - and then mocking those who actually ARE losing or surrendering all, crying and groaning, sharing with the poor, living in community and all the other stuff he says needs to be done - and we have been DOING here for years. I pray that he will be full of the love of God and tenderness toward the saints, because right now, I sure don't feel like he is.

I pray the Lord will keep His own and restore His Bride. I pray that Andrew will open his ears and hear that God is moving just as God said that He would. I pray that Andrew would repent for the hardness of his heart and his harshness toward LOTS of the saints that he has crawled over, dismissed, marginalized, insulted and otherwise demeaned and hurt.

From the church in Liberty, Missouri, with our blessings and prayers and tears,

Well, there you have it: "Melody Green Blasphemes The Name Of Keith Green!" It's been a long time coming, but now it's done. Take that Devil!

Repent, Melody Green, so that you too can "keep on keeping the faith in Jesus!"
